Elsie, Catherine BRASHEAR was the 7th child of Benjamin BRASHEAR and Catherin BELT. Both were born in Blandenburg, MD. I don't have anything at all on Waterman CRANE. Looks like you are well entrenched in his family. Catherine BRASHEAR'S older brother Marsham lived in Boonesborough with Daniel BOONE with his wife Lucy. They were in Boonesborough when the Indians and the British lay siege in 1778. >>>>

Catherine's younger brother Turner BRASHEAR was a Choctaw Interpreter. He too, was a native of Blandenburg, MD. He later lived in the Chickasaw Nation before moving to Natchez. Then he moved into the heart of the Choctaws. There he married HOTIOKA (TIOKA) the daughter of the Choctaw Chief TABOCCA. There they raised their Choctaw family.

Catherine's younger sister "Ester" married Philander SMITH. Philander was born the son of a minister in Greenville, Massachusetts. Philander later lived in Natchez where he served as Conservator of Peace, Justice of the Peace, Captain of the Territorial Militia, a Member and Speaker of the House of Representatives, and a founding member of the Mississippi Society for the Acquirement and Dissemination of Useful Knowledge. He was also the Foreman of the Grand Jury which indicted Aaron BURR. Today, Philander Smith College in Arkansas was named after him. This same Arkansas College sang at the Inauragual events for President Clinton last week in Washington D.C. (My nephew was there at all the Inaugural events. He is the Assistant Director of the Secret Service which guards the President of the U.S. -- He has had this responsibility since Nixon was in office.) Excuse the Hock trivia.

Getting back to Blandenburg, Prince George County, in Maryland will more than likely be the spot to find Waterman CRANE. That is were he marrried Catherine BRASHEAR.

You might also find something in Natchez. I know the BRASHEAR family had a store just north a little from LeFleur's Bluff (Jackson, MS). God bless.....

Well Elsie, maybe I can help a little more with this:
 Benjamin BRASHEAR, son of Samuel, Jr., son of Samuel, Sr., son of Robert, son of Benjamin, was born in Prince Georges County, MD, on Sept. 19, 1727. He was a member of Captain Tobias BELT'S Militia, Prince Georges County in 1748.
 Benjamin married Catherine (Katherine) BELT, Born Prince Georges County, MD. in 1730. Katherine was the daughter of John BELT (b. March 13, 1707) and Margaret QUEEN (married
 March 4, 1727/28); granddaughter of Col. Joseph BELT
 (1680-1761) of Chevy Chase Plantation, MD., and Esther BEALL
 (1625-1726); and was the great granddaughter of Col. Ninian
 BEALL (1625-1717) and his wife Ruth MOORE (1652-1707).

Around 1772, Benjamin sold his land, Pleasant Hill Plantation in Prince Georges County, MD., and moved with his family to the

Elsie, another glance and there was Samuel BRASHEAR, Sr, whose son Bazil BRASHEAR, born March 18, 1714; married Ann BELT and went to North Carolina before 1760. Gal, I can't believe I have so much STUFF. Gosh, I got STUFF and STUFF and STUFF. This data was copied from the files in the Archives at Tulane, in New Orleans. It was sent to me by a lovely elderly lady in Louisville, Mississippi by the name of Mrs. Joy Horton, Route 6, Box 3, Louisville, MS 39339.

Barbara in Tupelo went to Louisville and checked on her for me. She said she is still living in Louisville. You might check with Mrs. Horton. She is really a lovely lady. She too, is related to the LeFLORE family, along with many of the early residents in the Choctaw territory.

God bless.....

Dallas,

I am interested in a Nancy Vaughan, b. late 1700's. She had children by James or Turner Brashier/Brashears (over 35 spellings) who where: Dicy (m. Henry Ferguson), Nancy (m. William Hyden), Elizabeth (m. John Hyden), Barthenia (m. Hiram Hyden), Charity m. (Daniel Lockhart), Martin and John. Charity was born in Lee Co. VA in 1813. She was most likely the youngest child.

Possibly Nancy was of Choctaw heritage and came from Pontiac, Miss. More than likely she died by 1850 in Lee Co. VA.

Might you have anything on this family?

Thanks for any help you can give.
